

2009

Simply  beautiful

We welcome you to another edition of the Bburago Catalog. This 2009 version is filled with exciting vehicles, exhilarating designs, and whimsical fun. And really, when you get right down to it, fun is what our business is all about.

Late last year we introduced a Parking Playset for our 1/43 scale Street Fire cars. This was a non-catalog item, and while we were only looking for feedback, once our distributors saw it, they demanded we make it. We were staggered by the reaction to it from all our customers, and proudly have included it in the catalog this year. We did not stop with one playset for 1/43 scale though, we have two other styles, both of which include electronics. The Light and Sound Carrying Cubes have ignition, engine and siren sounds as well as light up light bar and headlights. The DigiTown Playsets include an interactive think-pod, which is sure to keep kids entertained for hours.

For the more traditional die-cast collector, you will again be excited at the products offered in 2009. The new Nissan GT-R makes its Bburago debut in 1/18, 1/32, and 1/43 scale. We also welcome a new licensor, SEAT, to the roster and we look forward to a long and prosperous relationship with them. All in all, a very diverse assortment of new titles are here to greet you in the following pages.

We are extremely thankful for our customers continued support, even through these difficult times. Your loyalty is always appreciated, and we wish you a successful 2009.
